NSW Aboriginal Land Council – Community Benefits Scheme

Funeral Grants to NSW Aboriginal People

Under Section 108 of The Aboriginal Land Rights Act, the NSW Aboriginal Land Council (NSWALC) is able to provide community benefits scheme.

Funeral Assistance

NSWALC has adopted guidelines for grants it will make to provide financial assistance in relation to the costs of funerals of Aboriginal persons in New South Wales.

A Funeral Fund was established in 1991-1992 and membership of the fund was opened up to all NSW Aboriginal people. Members were required to pay an annual membership fee. Following a court order, membership of the Funeral Fund was closed in February 1994.

As members of the fund had paid membership fees in the expectation that they would be given assistance with funeral expenses, NSWALC has determined that's persons who were financial members when the Funeral Fund closed are entitled to a funeral grant of up to $5000.

NSWALC has also determined that any NSW Aboriginal person who was not a member of the Funeral Fund is entitled to a funeral grant of up to $1000 to assist with covering the costs of the funeral.

Grants will be paid directly to funeral service providers under this community benefits scheme.

Applying for a Funeral Grant – Members

NSW Aboriginal Land Council can provide a grant for funeral costs of up to $5000 for members of the Funeral Fund.

This may include such costs as:

- Funeral parlour service fee
- Basic coffin / casket
- Cemetery / cremation fee
- Removal fee from hospital or place of death to local funeral parlour
- Clergy and organist fees
- Death Certificate and / or doctor's certificate for cremation

This does not include such costs as:

- Headstones, plaques or grave markers
- Return of body from one town to another for burial
- Floral tributes
- Radio or newspaper announcements
- Cost of additional cars
- Viewing fees
